

SCHOOL OF ENTERTAINMENT ARTS

Winter 2018 | The Hong Kong Movie Initiative
November 25 – December 17, 2017

OVERVIEW

Come be a part of this exciting new opportunity presented by The School of Entertainment Arts: The Hong Kong Movie Initiative! We will be producing a movie shooting over a three week period in Hong Kong over the winter break. This will be an exciting collaboration between Performing Arts, Film and Television, Production Design, Sound Design and Themed Entertainment Design. Get the opportunity to be cast as an actor for this project or work as part of the production team to create a film with fellow students in beautiful Hong Kong. You will receive course credit for your work on the film that will count toward your winter 2018 course load.

SELECTION CRITERIA

For consideration for SCAD study abroad programs, students must be in good standing with the university. In addition to submitting a completed application, students must have their course selections approved by their student success adviser or graduate adviser via an advising confirmation form; students will be prompted by the application system to upload this form.

COURSE

FILM 302 Production Practicum
FILM 770 Film and Television Professional Development
PERF 377 Performance Lab
SEOA 560 Collaborative Experiences in Entertainment Art

Courses are built into your Winter 2018. The study abroad office will register students.
Tuition and fees will be added to your Winter 2018 billing statement.

VISA

The length of the program requires students to be in Asia for 21 days. US passport holders meet the requirement. Please check your 'duration of stay' restrictions and requirements, as the country issuing your passport may limit your duration of stay in Hong Kong. Please note that some non-US passport holders may be ineligible for this program due to timeline and visa restrictions.
